

Global Business Sector-To what extent is proper tax planning important?

SCHEDULED ON
03 AUGUST 2023
09H00-12H00

MQA APPROVED

Speaker

Me Ahmed Bhurtun has over the years gathered invaluable knowledge as Legal Adviser to the Mauritius Revenue Authority (MRA) and as Vice-Chairperson of the Assessment Review Committee.

Now as a Barrister in private practice. He regularly provides legal advice pertaining to corporate and fiscal matters.

He deals with cases involving the Director General of the Mauritius Revenue Authority and is well conversant with matters pertaining to Income tax (including international aspects), Value Added Tax, Customs Duties and Gaming Taxes, among others.

Me Ahmed Bhurtun regularly delivers trainings on various aspects of tax law.

Topics to be covered

General introduction to the Global Business Sector

The current issues leading to tax assessments.

1. Deemed interest
2. 80 percent exemption
3. Inappropriate structures
4. Maintaining proper documentation
5. Controlled Foreign Companies

Tax avoidance and tax planning

Transfer Pricing

Treaty shopping and treaty abuse

Registration

Please register by sending an email to bhurtuntaxtraining@gmail.com.

A fee of Rs2,000 is applicable.

Two tea breaks and lunch will be provided.