

An Analysis of the Amendments brought by
The Finance
(Miscellaneous Provisions)
Act 2023

SCHEDULED ON
04 SEPTEMBER 2023
09H00-16H00

MQA APPROVED

Speaker

Me Ahmed Bhurtun has over the years gathered invaluable knowledge as Legal Adviser to the Mauritius Revenue Authority (MRA) and as Vice-Chairperson of the Assessment Review Committee.

Now as a Barrister in private practice. He regularly provides legal advice pertaining to corporate and fiscal matters.

He deals with cases involving the Director General of the Mauritius Revenue Authority and is well conversant with matters pertaining to Income tax (including international aspects), Value Added Tax, Customs Duties and Gaming Taxes, among others.

Me Ahmed Bhurtun regularly delivers trainings on various aspects of tax law.

Targeted Audience

This training has been organised for accountants, accounting firms, management companies, staff dealing within the corporate sector, banks, insurance companies, among others in order to address the important amendments brought to the revenue laws, corporate laws, the global business regulation and other matters pertaining to the financial sector.

Topics to be covered

- a. General introduction to the legislative mechanism.

- b. Rules to determine at what point in time a legislation comes into force.
- c. Amendments brought to:
 - i. Mauritius Revenue Authority Act
 - ii. Income Tax Act
 - iii. Value Added Tax Act
 - iv. Customs Act
 - v. Excise Act
 - vi. Companies Act
 - vii. Financial Services Act
 - viii. Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act
 - ix. Banking Act
 - x. Bank of Mauritius Act
 - xi. Insurance Act
 - xii. Other relevant enactments

Registration

A fee of Rs12,000 is applicable.

Three coffee breaks and lunch will be provided.